

SCALGO Software License Agreement

This is a legal agreement between you (either a private company or public organization, herein-after referred to as “you” or “your”) and SCALGO ApS (hereinafter referred to as “SCALGO”) covering the SCALGO software packages and associated documentation (hereinafter referred to as “the Software”). By downloading, installing or otherwise using the Software, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this agreement. Your acceptance of the terms and conditions of this agreement is a condition for the grant of license.

Grant of License. SCALGO grants to you a non-exclusive right to use the Software on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement. This right permits one (1) user to use the Software at any given time. You are entitled to make one (1) copy of the Software for archive or backup purposes and make one (1) copy of the Software to the extent necessary in order to use the Software. You may not make copies of the Software for any other purposes. The Software is protected by an electronic code, hardware device (‘dongle’), or both, at the sole discretion of SCALGO. At any time, SCALGO has the right to modify the way the Software is protected.

Reserved Rights. You acknowledge and agree that the Software (except for the third-party software libraries included in the Software) is a proprietary product of SCALGO. SCALGO holds the copyright and all other intellectual property rights to the Software and all future versions and upgrades hereof. You are not entitled to change or remove any notice on copyright, trademarks or any other rights marked on the Software or the data media.

Third-party Software Libraries. The Software includes software libraries developed by third parties. The license terms and conditions of these libraries can be found in the directory storing the Software after installation.

Demonstration License. If the Software is obtained as a demonstration version it may not be used for commercial purposes and will only be operational for a limited time period.

Restrictions. The software is licensed for your use only. You may not sell, distribute, license, rent, lease, lend, pledge or otherwise transfer or assign the Software or the related rights of use to a third party without the prior written permission of SCALGO. You also may not use the Software to provide hosting services or any other fee or transaction based services. You may not use the Software in the development of any software or model having the same functionality or characteristics as the Software, or in the development of competitive or derivative products. You may not in any way, including by decompilation, reconstruction or disassembly of the Software, examine or remake the source code or object code of the Software or its structural framework.

Maintenance and Support. SCALGO offers an annual software maintenance agreement against payment of a fee. The agreement includes all publicly available software and documentation upgrades, as well a technical user support. It is free of charge for a period of 12 months after the date of invoice. By accepting the terms and conditions of this agreement you also accept the terms and conditions of the SCALGO software maintenance agreement for this 12 month period.

Limited Warranty. The Software is a standard computer program and you shall acquire the Software "as is". SCALGO warrants that the Software substantially will function in accordance with the enclosed user documentation for a period of at least 12 months from the date of in-voice. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, SCALGO disclaims any and all other warranties, either express or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

If the Software does not comply with the warranty, SCALGO is at its own choice obliged to either: (1) rectify the defect free of charge or suggest methods of use/procedures whereby the defect will have no significant effect on the use of the Software; (2) terminate this Agreement and return the paid license fee; or (3) deliver free of charge a new version of the Software without the material defect. Any replacement of the Software will be subject to this warranty for the remainder of the original warranty period, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer.

The warranty shall not be applicable if defects in the Software are caused by either of: (1) accidental circumstances, including damage to the Software by a third party; (2) misuse of the Software; (3) use of the Software contrary to this Agreement; or (4) any kind of modifications to the Software by any person other than SCALGO, whether or not SCALGO has given its permission to such modifications.

The above clauses exhaust your rights and remedies in case of defects in the Software, unless otherwise prescribed by mandatory rules of law.

Limitation of Liability. SCALGO shall not be responsible for the fitness of the Software for the purpose desired or intended by you. SCALGO shall not be liable for any loss suffered in connection with installation, upgrading, servicing and support of the Software. SCALGO shall not be liable for any indirect loss, including but not limited to punitive damages, consequent losses, business interruption, loss of data, loss caused by non-availability of the Software or incorrect information in the Software, operating loss, loss of profits or any other indirect economic loss, even if SCALGO has been advised of the possibility of such losses or damages. SCALGO shall be subject to product liability provided that such liability follows from mandatory rules under applicable law. The liability of SCALGO shall be limited to an amount equal to the license fee paid by you for the Software.

Termination. You may terminate the license agreement by informing SCALGO about the termination. SCALGO may terminate the license agreement if you breach the terms and conditions of this agreement. In case of termination you shall cease to use the software and immediately return or delete all copies of the software. In case of termination SCALGO shall not repay any license fee.

Choice of Law and Jurisdiction. Any dispute between the parties shall be decided by the ordinary Danish courts in accordance with Danish law.
